Rev. Doct. THOMÆ JACOMB, S. T. D. (Honoratiss. Comitissæ Exoniensi Domestici Capellani) Nuperrime Lond. Defuncti.

Quorum AUCTIO habebitur LONDINI, in Ædibus Nigri Cygni ex Adverso Australis Porticus Ecclesiæ Cathed. Paulin. in Cæmiterio D. Paul. 31 die Octobris 1687.

Per Edoardum Millingtonum, Bibliopolam Lond.

Catalogues are distributed at 6 d. per Catal. from Mr. Notts at the Queens Arms in Pell-Mell. Mr. Fox's Shop in Westminster-Hall. Mr. Wilkinson's at the Black-Boy in Fleetstreet. Mr. William Miller's at the Acorn in St. Paul's Church-Yard. Mr. Samuel Crouch's at the Corner of Popes-head Alley in Cornbil. Mr. Benj. Shirley at the Auction House in Oxon. Mr. Edward Hall in Cambridge, Booksellers. 1687.

His Catalogue presents you with the Library of the Reverend and Learned Dr. Thomas Jacomb (late Chaplain to the Right Honourable the Countess Dowager of Exceter) a Person so generally known, and also esteemed for his constant and indefatigable preaching in this great City, that I shall not presume to attempt a further Character of him, since it hath been faithfully and excellently drawn, by a Learned and Intimate Friend of his, in a Sermon published upon the occasion of his Death *. However, with relation to the present undertaking, * Dr. Bates his I may truly say, He was well instructed in the various and Sermon, printed for Mr. J. Robinchoicest Editions of Books; and extreamly curious to collect son in St. Paul's Church-Yard. what was rare and useful in most sorts of Learning: And no wonder will it be, if we consider the great Opportunities he had, by the many Years continuance in this place, and his constant readiness to buy what at any time, and in any way presented it self, that every part of the Library is furnished and adorned with great Curiosities; and that the whole is swelled beyond the proportion of most Mens of his Figure and Order. And since it is a Debt of Truth, as well as of Gratitude, payable to his Name and Memory, it must be here acknowledged that he was one of the most Gentile and Generous Buyers, if not the only one of his Time, who delighted to compleat what his Study was defective in, by freely parting with his Money. Hence it is that you have entire Collections of the Latin and Greek Fathers, of the best Editions, of Ecclesiastical Writers, of Councils, of Schoolmen. and Casuistical Authors, of the Works of the celebrated first Reformers: of Bibles in the Oriental Languages, great variety; of Commentators Ancient and Modern, English and Latin, almost innumerable: And if we remarque the Number of his Historians, Foreign and Domestick, Poets, Geographers, Philologers, Lexicographers, in Greek and Latin; togather with the valuable and voluminous Books in the Civil and Canon Law, Physick, Philosophy, &c. And the Qualifications of the whole, as to their binding, being generally inviting, as they are plain Indications of the greatness of his Mind. and his extraordinary Learning, so they cannot but sufficiently incourage, and powerfully charm the Learned of the Age to the purchase and possession of them.

This Auction will begin on Monday the last Day of October next, 1687. at the Sign of the Black Swan, over against the South Door of St. Paul's Church (amongst the Woolien-Drapers) in St. Paul's Church-Yard, continuing Day by Day, the first five Days of every Week, till all the Books are fold, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two to Six in the Evening.

Hat he who bids most, is the Buyer; and if any Difference arise, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book, or Books, shall be forthwith exposed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwise expressed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That all Gentlemen,&c. Buyers do give in not only their Sirnames,but Christian, as also their Places of Abode, with the signs they Live, or Lodg at, to the end that every Person may have Justice done him in the buying, and in the delivery; which new Condition is now proposed, to prevent the Inconveniencies that have more or less hitherto attended the Undertakers, and also the Purchasers, by reason that several Persons, out of Vanity and Ostentation, have appeared and bought, to the damage and disappointment of the Parties they outbid, and have not been so kind to their own Reputation, or just to the Proprietors, as to pay for and fetch them away.

IV. That the Money for the Book or Books so bought, is to be paid by the Buyer within one Month after the Auction is ended, at the Place where they are sold, where constant attendance shall be given for that Month, Day by Day, from Nine of the Clock in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two till Six in the Evening, for Receipt of the Money, and Delivery of the Books.

V. The Books, for satisfaction of the Buyers, will be exposed to view for one whole Week before the Sale, from the Hours of Nine in the Morning to Twelve, and from Two in the Asternoon to Six.

Catalogues are distributed at 6 d. per Book, from the Places mentioned on the Title Page; which Method we have now taken, by the direction of the Learned, for the better accommodation, and more prudent distribution than formerly of the Copies to them, &c. which six Pence shall be allowed (if demanded) to any Person or Persons that shall buy, or cause to be bought for him or them, to the value of Ten Shillings in the ensuing Sale: Which being so reasonable a Proposal, we question not but all Gentlemen, &c. will readily comply with it.

That for the further conveniency of the Learned Gentlemen in Cambridge and Oxford, and all other Places where this Catalogue may come, who have not Friends in the City, that are proper and skilful Agents to act for them, or at least cannot constantly attend the Auction, if they please to send their Commissions in time, containing the Page and Number of the Book so desired, the Price they are willing to give for each, with Orders to whom they shall be delivered when bought, and of whom the Money shall be received, they shall be faithfully executed, directing their Letters to the Auction-House mentioned on the Title Page,

For their humble Servant EDW ARD MILLINGTON.
